

E Rewrite the sentences using should have, could have, must have or might have.

- I'm surprised Mike didn't know the answer to such an easy question.
Mike should have known the answer to such an easy question.
- It's possible that they have already heard the news.
They might have already heard the news.
- The ground is very wet. It's obvious that it rained last night.
It must have rained last night because the ground is very wet.
- Jane received an invitation to the party but decided not to go.
Jane could have gone to the party but decided not to.

Error Correction

F Correct the errors.

- It's so dark I may not see a thing. x
It's so dark I can't see a thing.
- He can be tired after working all night. x
He must be tired after working all night.
- We mustn't go to work tomorrow. It's Sunday. x
We don't have to go to work tomorrow. It's Sunday.
- Should I have another cup of coffee, please? x
Could I / Can I / May I have another cup of coffee, please?
- Take a sweater. You ought to need it later. x
Take a sweater. You may / I might need it later.

G Complete the sentences to make them true for you.

- At home, I must Answers will vary. Accept all logical and grammatically correct answers.
- At the weekend, my friends and I might
- Last year, I couldn't
- In my opinion, a good friend shouldn't
- I realise that I shouldn't have

Grammar Review 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Choose the correct answers to complete the text.

The crossword puzzle 1. was invented by an American, Arthur Wayne, 2. who / whose first puzzle 3. appeared / was appearing in a newspaper in 1913. Doctors warned people 4. don't do / not to do them because they caused mental strain, but that didn't help. People have always been fascinated by games that challenge the mind and they immediately 5. have loved / loved this new puzzle. If Arthur were alive today, he 6. would be / will be delighted to know that many people still 7. enjoy / enjoyed crossword puzzles. Furthermore, people 8. mustn't / don't have to buy newspapers or magazines to do them. They 9. can / should do them on the Internet or watch one of many crossword-based TV game shows, such as Wheel of Fortune, which 10. have become / had become very popular.

Vocabulary: GOING OUT

A Complete the sentences with the words below.

go to / book / check / decide / phone / make

- I'll check the ticket prices to see if they aren't too expensive.
- We are going to make reservations at the new hotel.
- Did you remember to book seats for the performance tonight?
- Phone first to make sure they're at home.
- It's hard to decide what to wear on a first date.
- After work, we'll go to the bar for a drink.

B Complete the sentences with the correct form of the words in brackets.

- On Saturdays, this restaurant is usually crowded (crowd)
- Everyone likes Jill because she's so friendly (friend)
- The party was great. Everyone had an enjoyable time. (enjoy)
- People who are not helpful are generally unpopular (popular)
- We got to the bar before opening hours. (open)
- For relaxing at home, we wear informal clothes. (formal)
- It wasn't a good film. It was boring and unexciting. (excite)

WORDPOWER

Word Pairs with and

C Complete the sentences.

- Paul switched the lights on and off.
- Our puppy jumps in and out of his box.
- Sam searched left and right for the sign.
- "Where have you been?"
"Oh, here and there."
- We received both positive and negative comments about the book.

Topic Vocabulary Review 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Complete the puzzle using the clues below.

Across →

- I'm going to call and a table in the restaurant.
- Do you play the guitar or any other ?
- John is responsible for the special in the film.
- You can trust Jim to do as he promised; he's very

Down ↓

- Classical music is not as with young people as hip-hop.
- Jenny is going to dye her hair and her ears.
- Last night we saw a very good play at the local

